Cost: FREE
Our brains are like apothecaries containing all the elixirs and antidotes we need to induce desired physical and mental states or counteract undesirable ones. Our minds are like chemists compounding the unique formulas to achieve these transformations. However, on a conscious level, we often fail to understand which formulas are necessitated for optimal mental and physical health. Through divine discernment acquired only through the power of prayer, these much-needed transformations will take place on a subconscious level and will be facilitated by Reverend Dawn Marie Richey Hypnotherapist. The class is followed by a 20-minute hypnotherapy session. You will leave feeling relaxed, rejuvenated, and transformed!
