CREATIVITY & INTUITION

Creativity can suspend time and space, and lift you to where you feel more alive, more real. It tells the story of who you are, and of who you are becoming. It is the beacon that illuminates your spiritual path and is key to living an enchanted life.

Tysa Goodrich

Intuition becomes the vehicle that moves you along that spiritual path, to that more of who you are, and provides the fuel for the journey.

* Interconnecting Intuition and Creativity * Developing a Foundation of Creativity * Defining Intuition and the various ways we can receive guidance * Resistances to using Intuitive Guidance * Personality characteristics of Intuitive People, and of Creative People * Enchantment and the Unknown * Meditation

Please join singer/songwriter and intuitive counselor Tysa Goodrich for an exploration into the transformative and irrational realms of creativity and intuition

JUELLE & THE COUNCIL

For the past 15 years, one of our most favorite and very special guests here at Cosmic has been Juelle & The Council.

September marked a year since we have been able to enjoy having them with us. As you sit with them for your private session, or in a group event, they truly have "light speed understanding" of where each of us has been, currently are and the ways our own beloved spirits are trying to direct us on our path. Time with them is always inspiring. Sessions are powerful, healing, often life-changing and light a spark within for the new direction we are seeking. At the beginning of this year Juelle was given a standard antibiotic that affected her horribly and sent her into Toxic Liver Disease and total liver failure. Since then, she has been living with and dealing with the debilitating effects of TLD.

We are asking for prayers for Juelle's health and wellness. If you do a daily practice or are part of a prayer circles, she would feel blessed to be added to that as well. She has a most amazing liver specialist and great doctors.

Top notch healers have been working on her for months, energetically sending her "new healthy livers and so much more. The Thai students who are part of their Power of One / BlueStarofHope.org program, chant prayers for her every day. Can you imagine the vibration of thousands of prayers being focused on one person? She feels them all. She loves them all

There is no GoFundMe account. This is not something they want. Juelle and Donovan have been in service to humanity most of their lives. Their spiritual retreats, counseling, Juelle's private sessions and groups, the BlueStarofHope.org programs, their 30-day trip to Iran as Peace Ambassadors are all part of their service work. They don't live extravagantly. They have always trusted that the universe will provide for them in all ways. What they are asking for is your prayers.
